Abstract

Women Entrepreneurship has been recognised as an important source of economic growth for developing the country. Women Entrepreneurs have involved themselves in different sectors as it helps to creates accomplishment by finding their own individuality in the society. The aim of this paper is to study the problems of faced by women entrepreneurs and their effects. Section one deals introduction. Section two gives the definitions. Section three describes the adaptation of the problem. Ultimately section five reveals conclusion.

References

3. W.B. Vasantha Kandasamy et all, Mathematical Analysis of the problems faced by the people with disabilities, Ph.D thesis, University of Madras
7. The Indian Express, India Ranks low among Countries with Women Entrepreneurs, July 2018.

Index Terms

Computer Science

Fuzzy Systems

Keywords

Women Entrepreneur, Neutrosophic Associative Memories, Fuzzy Cognitive Map, Bihidden patterns, Limit cycle