Abstract

World Wide Web is now having highly confidential data. The semantic Web is further extracting information from this data. But Extracting information through Agents required high level of security consideration.

This paper is proposing a system called RESOLVE for protecting this highly secured information through its full proof mechanism. It works with double layer of Security.
- http://www.w3.org/TR/2003/WD-ws-arch-20030514/
- http://www.w3.org/TR/ws-arch/

Index Terms

Computer Science Information Security

Key words

Web services
Web Security challenges
Semantic Web
RESOLVE
Cryptography