Abstract

A strong form of \(-\)irresolute function called completely \(-\)irresolute function is introduced and several characterizations of such functions are investigated. The relationships among completely \(-\)irresolute functions, separation axioms and covering properties are also investigated.
Ultra Scientist Of Physical Sciences –accepted for publication.

Index Terms

Computer Science
Applied Mathematics

Keywords
- closed sets - open sets completely -irresolute functions -compact spaces
- connected spaces and -normal spaces