Abstract

Islamic star patterns have been extensively studied for their symmetry and aesthetic appeal. This paper presents a simple construction method for generating these stars on computers and constructing new tiling patterns that involve stars with an odd number of vertices.

Index Terms

Computer Science  Algorithms

Keywords

Polygon  Rosette  Star  Symmetry  Trigonometric