Abstract

In today’s world security is an aspect which is given higher priority by all political and government worldwide and aiming to reduce crime incidence. As data mining is the appropriate field to apply on high volume crime dataset and knowledge gained from data mining approaches will be useful and support police force. So In this paper crime analysis is done by performing k-means clustering on crime dataset using rapid miner tool.

References

- Manish Gupta1*, B. Chandra1 and M. P. Gupta1, 2007 Crime Data Mining for Indian Police Information System
- Nazlena Mohamad Ali1, Masnizah Mohd2, Hyowon Lee3, Alan F. Smeaton3, Fabio
Crime Analysis using K-Means Clustering

Crestani4 and Shahrul Azman Mohd Noah2, 2010 Visual Interactive Malaysia Crime News Retrieval System
- Sutapat Thirprungsri Rutgers University, USA, 2011 Cluster Analysis of Anomaly Detection in Accounting Data: An Audit Approach 1
- Malathi, A.1, Dr. S. Santhosh Baboo 2 and Anbarasi, A. 31 Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science, Govt Arts College, Coimbatore, India. 2 Readers, Department of Computer science, D. G. Vaishnav College, Chennai, India, 2011 An intelligent Analysis of a city Crime Data Using Data Mining
- Malathi, A; Santhosh Baboo, S, 2011 An Enhanced Algorithm to Predict a Future Crime using Data Mining
- Aravindan Mahendiran, Michael Shuffett, Sathappan Muthiah, Rimy Malla, Gaoqiang Zhang, 2011 Forecasting Crime Incidents using Cluster Analysis and Bayesian Belief Networks

- Sutapat Thirprungsri, 2012 Cluster Analysis for Anomaly Detection in Accounting Data: An Audit Approach 1

Index Terms

Computer Science
Artificial Intelligence

Keywords
Cluster Crime Analysis and Rapid miner