Abstract

We explore in this paper the dynamics of the inverse complex function using the Ishikawa iterates. The \( z \) plane fractal images generated from the generalized transformation function \( z \rightarrow (z^n + c) - 1 \) \( n \geq 2 \) are analyzed.

Reference

- P. Blanchard, Complex Analytic Dynamics on the Riemann Sphere, Bulletin of the
- S. Dhurandar, V. C. Bhavsar and U. G. Gujar, “Analysis of z-plane fractal images from for α U. G. Gujar and V. C. Bhavsar, Fractals from in the Complex c-Plane, Computers
- U. G. Gujar, V. C. Bhavsar and N. Vangala, Fractals from in the Complex z-Plane, (1991), 579-582.
147-150.
(1993), 603-607.

- R. Rana, Y. S. Chauhan and A. Negi, Non Linear dynamics of Ishikawa Iteration, In
- S. T. Welstead and T. L. Cromer, Coloring Periodicities of Two-dimensional Mappings,

Index Terms

Computer Science Applied Mathematics

Key words

Complex dynamics Relative Superior Mandelbrot Set
Relative Superior Julia set

Ishikawa Iteration